Robbi Raitt
President and Founder of Empire Tickets

A pioneer in the ticket brokerage market place, Robbi Raitt began his work in the industry nearly 10 years ago. He started as a one-man ticket broker, transforming his VW bus into a licensed mobile-ticket operation for events around the country. Today, the Florida native runs Empire Tickets, one of the top ticket brokerage firms in the country, with 22 full-time employees. Empire Tickets provides exclusive entertainment packages for events ranging from the Olympics, to the Super Bowl, to Broadway Shows and major concerts.

As president of Empire Tickets, Mr. Raitt leads the strategic direction and overall growth of the company. On a daily basis, he oversees brand extension and identity, develops new business planning and identifies key strategic partnerships.

According to Mr. Raitt, Empire Tickets brings honesty, integrity and trustworthiness to an industry often perceived as unreliable. He has worked to increase the quality standards and business practices of the industry by establishing processes within his own company.

Empire Tickets, Inc. is an Atlanta-based ticket broker specializing in premium seats to high-profile sporting events, concerts, and theatre productions across the United States. The company offers tickets for a broad spectrum of events, with a mission to consistently secure premium seats at popular entertainment events across the United States and provide customers with easy, reliable access to hard-to-get tickets.
